In which of these roles, if any, would you be willing to serve?

Optional: If you are equally interested in a position on Fraternity Council and District Director, please click here to respond to a few additional questions.

Thank you for expressing interest in a leadership position in Kappa!

Additional questions if interested in also serving as a District Director

1. What makes you best suited for the position of District Director? Please respond in approximately 100-200 words.

2. Building a district team can be challenging because each of the 16 Content Specialists and staff partners on the team is responsible for their own specific content area (e.g., alumna relations, standards, Panhellenic) and also responsible to their content team. Please describe how you would build a cohesive team. Please respond in approximately 100-200 words.
